

Gloucestershire Local History Association

www.gloshistory.org.uk

Local History Day

People to Places

Immigration and Emigration - to, from and within Gloucestershire

Saturday 24th October 2015

at Pate's Grammar School, Princess Elizabeth Way, Cheltenham
(entrance in Oldbury Road)

Programme

10.30 Doors open. Refreshments available.

11.00 Welcome and Introduction.

11.05 Dr Jessica Lutkin - From Iceland to Portugal: Resident Immigrants in Gloucestershire and Bristol, 1330-1550

Jessica has published a number of articles on aspects of England in the 14th and 15th centuries and has recently worked on the 'England's Immigrants 1330-1550' project, based at the University of York and the National Archives.

12.00 Lunch break and time to view displays. Refreshments available.

14.00 Theo Wiggill - The British settlers of 1820 to South Africa: Bradshaw's party from Gloucestershire

Theo is visiting from Australia. He is descended from a member of Bradshaw's party, Isaac Wiggill, who was born in Sheepscombe, baptised in Cranham and emigrated from Painswick. He has recently published a book entitled 'Cotswolds to the Cape'.

14.45 Tea break and last chance to view displays.

15.15 Announcement of the winner of the Bryan Jerrard Award for what the judges believe to be the best article on an aspect of Gloucestershire's history in a local history publication during the preceding year. We are grateful to The History Press for sponsoring this year's award.

15.30 Florence Nyasamo-Thomas - Untold stories: Exploring Cheltenham's Black History

Florence studied History and Community Development at the University of Gloucestershire and is the founder and co-ordinator of Black History Month Cheltenham.

16.10 Closing remarks and announcement of the winner of the Best Display.

16.30 Close

Displays

Local history societies, groups and organisations will be mounting displays on the chosen theme.
Three judges will decide on the best display.

Admission and refreshments

Admission to the event is free. Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available on arrival, at lunchtime and at afternoon tea break. There will be sandwiches and cakes available at lunchtime for which donations to GLHA will be appreciated.

THE SUMMERFIELD
CHARITABLE TRUST

Sponsored by the Summerfield Trust